CCTS DIGEST

Center for Clinical and Translational Science

Providing solutions to sharpen science, improve human health, and address disparities and diseases disproportionately represented within the Deep South.

Did You Know?

The CCTS Kaizen training platform has trained over 500 investigators all over the Partner Network and beyond including Ohio State, Pittsburgh, Vanderbilt, and New York University. As you may know, the NIH is requiring formal instruction in Scientific Rigor, Reproducibility & Transparency (R2T) for all federally-funded trainees. The next R2T game runs July 8 to August 8.
