CCTS Spotlight

UAB Return to Operations (R2Ops) Committee

The Return to Operations (R2Ops) Committee, led by Drs. Kent Keyser and Jason Nichols, has worked tirelessly over the past months to monitor the ever-changing research environment affected by the global pandemic and to provide ongoing guidance to enable UAB's research community to resume studies in physical research environments and clinical settings. The Committee has provided detailed resources and helped facilitate opportunities for further guidance, like the CCTS Morning Coffee conversations, in order to keep our community informed and as safe as possible as we navigate reentry. We are grateful for their leadership during this time!
