2026-2027

The Clinical Research Support Enterprise (CReSt) offers comprehensive educational programming designed to build foundational knowledge and practical skills essential for success in the clinical research environment. Through a variety of in-person, classroom-based, and online learning opportunities, CReSt serves investigators, study coordinators, financial and regulatory staff, and other research professionals. The curriculum emphasizes core principles such as Good Clinical Practice (GCP), regulatory compliance, and other critical topics that support high-quality, ethical, and efficient clinical research operations.
