J-1 Acknowledgement Form

The J-1 Program is designed as an Exchange Visitor program, which means that the objective is "to increase mutual understanding between the people of the United States and the people of other countries by means of educational and cultural exchanges." J-1 Exchange Visitors are expected to return to their home country at the end of their program to share the knowledge acquired in the US.

I understand that I have been invited to UAB to perform a specific research program in a specific physical location with a specific supervisor.

I understand that I am not authorized to perform any work during my stay at UAB other than that described in the offer/invitation letter I received from my UAB sponsor.

I understand that I must attend a mandatory international orientation session with ISSS within the first week of my arrival at UAB to learn more about my rights and responsibilities as a J-1 Exchange Visitor.

I understand that if I decide to leave UAB early, transfer to another institution, or change labs within UAB, I must give sufficient notice to my supervisor. I understand that standard professional courtesy in the US is to give my supervisor at least 30 days' notice if I intend to leave or change labs.

I understand that I alone am responsible for:

- a) Complying with all federal laws and regulations, including those of the United States Department of State's Student and Exchange Visitor Program (SEVP), which governs my stay in the US.
b) Maintaining my lawful immigration status by not engaging in inappropriate activities.
c) Notifying ISSS staff of any changes in my physical lab location, home address, or insurance coverage within 10 calendar days; and
d) Notifying ISSS staff of any changes in my financial support during my stay at UAB.

I understand that the Board of Trustees of the University of Alabama (i.e., UAB), its faculty, staff, agents, and employees—including ISSS staff—will not be liable for any difficulties I may experience resulting from my failure to maintain proper lawful immigration status.

VERIFICATION OF UNDERSTANDING. By signing below, I verify that I have read this document and understand its contents. Since it is my responsibility to maintain lawful immigration status in the United States, I hereby release and hold harmless the Board of Trustees of the University of Alabama, its faculty, staff, agents, and employees—including ISSS staff—from any claim that could result from my failure to maintain lawful immigration status in the United States.
