

Inpatient Medical Services Manager Enhances Clinical Operations

New manager Libby Bollier, center, with members of the clinical operations team, Lauryn Schultz, Dr. Elizabeth Turnipseed, Erin Snow, and Mary Coleman Dobbins

*Willett in Annals of Internal Medicine: ABIM Policy Provides Room for Parental Leave*

Lisa Willett, MD, MACM
Professor, General Internal Medicine

Baskin Receives Grant to Improve Prostate Cancer Screening Among African-American Men

Monica Baskin, PhD
Professor, Preventive Medicine

Prabhu Appointed President Elect of American Heart Association Board of Directors for Metro Birmingham

Sumanth Prabhu, MD

Professor and Director, Cardiovascular Disease

Bhatia is SOM Featured Discovery Recipient for Breakthrough on Chronic Myeloid Leukemia Treatment

Ravi Bhatia, MD

Professor and Director, Hematology & Oncology

Shaneyfelt to Craft Content for American Board of Internal Medicine Assessments

Terry Shaneyfelt, MD
Professor, General Internal Medicine

Saag Named Editor of AIDS

Mike Saag, MD
Professor, Infectious Diseases

New Faculty Spotlight:
Ruchit Shah, MD

Dr. Shah's clinical interests include all aspects of clinical cardiac electrophysiology. He is accepting new patients in the Cardiology Clinic at TKC.

Ruchit Shah, MD
Assistant Professor, Cardiovascular Disease

Medical Grand Rounds

Wednesday,
January 15, 2020

12:00 P.M. in
Margaret Cameron
Spain Auditorium

Studies in HIV and TB in South Africa: From the Molecule to the Population and Back

---

Emily Wong, MD

Division of Infectious Diseases

Massachusetts General Hospital

---