

#VirtualHighFives

We are grateful for
Drs. Stephen Russell & KeAndrea Titer for sharing their expertise
on health disparities
and future hopes for resilience during COVID!

Stephen Russell, MD
Associate Professor, General
Internal Medicine

KeAndrea Titer, MD
Assistant Professor,
General Internal Medicine
and Hospital Medicine

#VirtualHighFives

Thanks to Dr. Gretchen Winter for her bravery as she volunteers on the front line in New York City. We are thankful for your selflessness.

Gretchen Winter, MD

Assistant Professor,

Pulmonary, Allergy, and Critical Care Medicine

#VirtualHighFives

A BIG thanks to all of our UAB Medicine nurses who are the backbone of healthcare. We are grateful for all you do!

#VirtualHighFives

Thanks to all of the volunteer convalescent plasma donors. You are improving the lives of many!

Pictured: The first volunteer donor, Kate O'Connor, D.O., a fellow in the division of Pulmonary, Allergy, and Critical Care Medicine.

#VirtualHighFives

High fives to our benign hematologists for tracking the data regarding coagulation problems among our patients with COVID, and keeping our treatment recommendations evidence-based!

Rita Paschal, MD
Assistant Professor,
Hematology & Oncology

Jori May, MD
PGY-3, Hematology &
Oncology