DEAN'S WELCOME MESSAGE

Welcome to the University of Alabama at Birmingham School of Health Professions! We are pleased you chose to join one of our many excellent programs, which in combination have established us as a national leader in health professions education.

We are home to one of the largest health professions schools in the nation with more than 30 programs at the certificate, baccalaureate, master's, and doctoral levels, with more than 2,000 undergraduate and graduate students enrolled.

Moving into a post-COVID environment is a new start for everyone in health care, and you are in the best place to begin your personal journey toward joining this dynamic field. We are all committed to providing you a world-class education, and to support your pursuit of knowledge and your strong desire to serve others as a healthcare professional.

The pandemic has challenged all of us in many ways, and your entry into one of our professional programs demonstrates one of the most precious personal qualities one can have: resilience. That resilience has brought you here today and will continue to serve you well during your journey at UAB.

We recognize that healthcare needs - even outside of a pandemic - are constantly changing. That is why we continue to add innovative programs to our academic portfolio and to enhance and revitalize ongoing programs. We also offer graduate programs you will only find in Alabama at UAB, such as Genetic Counseling, Nuclear Medicine and Molecular Imaging, Low Vision Rehabilitation, Health Physics, Healthcare Quality and Safety, doctoral-level Rehabilitation Science, and Biomedical and Health Sciences.

Our degrees and programs are fully accredited by their respective professional organizations. This means you will be eligible for licensure, national certification or registrations and enjoy being in high demand within the job market. Our first-time student exam pass rate on many credentialing exams is an astounding 98 percent or higher.

Graduating from the School of Health Professions means you will acquire an esteemed degree, have a host of job opportunities in healthcare – an industry that continues to grow rapidly – and be well prepared to make a difference in your community. We look forward to maintaining our relationship with you when you join our alumni community.

Our alumni give advice to current students that is worth repeating: “learn your craft, be a better professional for your patients, be open minded to future possibilities, and remember to have a healthy work/ life balance”.

I look forward to seeing you grow in your respective fields and watching you become the leader we know you can be.

Andrew J. Butler, PhD, FAPTA

OVERVIEW OF THE SCHOOL OF HEALTH PROFESSIONS

A leader in federally funded research, the UAB School of Health Professions (SHP) is one of the largest academic institutions of its type in the United States and currently boasts several nationally ranked programs. What began in the 1950s as a collection of training programs in various para-professional disciplines has grown into an internationally recognized center of academic excellence.

The SHP initially took shape in 1969 as UAB gained autonomy within the University of Alabama System. Originally christened the School of Community and Allied Health Resources (SCAHR), the school incorporated the School of Health Services Administration and the Division of Allied Health Sciences from the College of General Studies with parts of the Department of Public Health and Epidemiology from the medical school. An innovative facility designed to meet the growing needs of the health care industry, the SCAHR was divided into four academic divisions that functioned like regular academic departments: Health Services Administration, Public Health and Environment, Allied Health Sciences, and the Regional Technical Institute for Health Occupations.

Throughout the 1970's and 80's the school's offerings were amended to reflect the changing health care industry. As a result of the changes, SCAHR became the School of Public and Allied Health (SPAHE). Next it became the School of Community and Allied Health (SCAH) and later the School of Health Related Professions (SHRP). During this time, the school added several new areas of study including a nationally ranked program in Nutrition Sciences. Through the leadership and guidance of early visionaries, the school experienced unparalleled success, which continues to date.

Today, the School of Health Professions is comprised of more than 30 programs – at the certificate, baccalaureate, master's, and doctoral levels – across five academic departments: Clinical and Diagnostic Sciences, Health Services Administration, Nutrition Sciences, Occupational Therapy, and Physical Therapy. The school is housed in three buildings, the Susan Mott Webb Nutrition Sciences Building, the Learning Resource Center Building (LRC), and the School of Health Professions Building (SHPB).

With more than 2,200 faculty, staff, and students, SHP is one of six schools comprising the world-renowned UAB Academic Health Center. Students have access to vast academic resources, state-of-the-art facilities, and progressive research.

SHP is proud of many accomplishments including:

- U.S. News & World Report ranks SHP programs in the nation's top 25.
- Research funding is over $14 million and growing.
- The school is at the top of the list in research funding from the National Institutes of Health for schools of its type and has been either first or second in funding received since 1969.

Under the current leadership of Dean Andrew Butler, the school has never been stronger or better positioned as a national leader in health professions education.

ASKIT

ASKIT is the technology help desk for faculty, staff, and students. They provide free support via telephone, email, or in-person. You will be asked to supply your BlazerID when you request assistance.

ATTENDANCE

Class attendance is expected in all SHP programs. Specific class, laboratory, or clinical site attendance requirements may be more stringent than university guidelines. Refer to the program requirements in this handbook and in course syllabi for policies. The UAB attendance policy is as follows:

The University of Alabama at Birmingham recognizes that the academic success of individual students is related to their class attendance and participation. Each course instructor is responsible for establishing policies concerning class attendance and make-up opportunities. Any such policies, including points for attendance and/or participation, penalties for absences, limits on excused absences, total allowable absences, etc., must be specified in the course syllabus provided to students at the beginning of the course term. Such policies are subject to departmental oversight and may not, by their specific prescriptions, negate or circumvent the accommodations provided below for excused absences.

The University regards certain absences as excused and in those instances requires that instructors provide a reasonable accommodation for the student who misses assignments, presentations, examinations, or other academic work of a substantive nature by virtue of these excused absences. Examples include the following:

- Absences due to jury or military duty, provided that official documentation has been provided to the instructor in a timely manner in advance.
- Absences of students registered with Disabilities Services for disabilities eligible for “a reasonable number of disability-related absences” provided students give their instructors notice of a disability-related absence in advance or as soon as possible.
- Absences due to participation in university-sponsored activities when the student is representing the university in an official capacity and as a critical participant, provided that the procedures below have been followed:
 - Before the end of the add/drop period, students must provide their instructor a schedule of anticipated excused absences in or with a letter explaining the nature of the expected absences from the director of the unit or department sponsoring the activity.
 - If a change in the schedule occurs, students are responsible for providing their instructors with advance written notification from the sponsoring unit or department.
- Absences due to other extenuating circumstances that instructors deem excused. Such classification is at the discretion of the instructor and is predicated upon consistent treatment of all students.
- Absences due to religious observances provided that students give faculty written notice prior to the drop/add deadline of the term.

In these instances, instructors must give students the opportunity to complete assignments in a way that corresponds as much as possible to the nature, scope, and format of the original. Options may include making up exams or other assignments, rescheduling student classroom presentations, or arranging for early or late submission of written assignments. The course make-up policy should be included in the syllabus.

BACKGROUND CHECK

Students in SHP programs are required by policy to undergo a background check using the school's approved vendor, CastleBranch, at the time of program admission, and again, prior to placement in a fieldwork placement (clinical, internship, practicum, residency, etc.). Additional checks may be required by the individual sites therefore, students should work with the program to ensure compliance requirements are met. Instructions for requesting the background check are provided to students by their programs.

The Office of Academic and Faculty Affairs is responsible for ensuring student compliance throughout the program. Students found to be non-compliant will not be allowed to matriculate in the program (orientation, attend class, fieldwork placement, etc.) until all requirements are met. Program Directors, Fieldwork Coordinators, and students will be notified of non-compliance and a hold will be placed on the student's account.

The SHP has several scholarship opportunities for students enrolled in SHP programs. The Scholarship Committee, comprised of faculty from each department, reviews and, selects awardees.

Scholarships available to students in any SHP program are the following:

The Carol E. Medders Endowed Scholarship in Health Professions was established by Carol Medders, former Director of Admissions for the School of Health Professions Student Services. Applicants must be currently enrolled in a full-time, degree-granting program in the School of Health Professions and should demonstrate academic excellence and financial need. The award recipient should be enrolled in a program that has a competitive application process and academic course load that prohibits them from holding full-time employment. This scholarship is awarded for the Spring Semester.

The Ethel M. and Jesse D. Smith Endowed Nursing and Allied Health Scholarship is an endowment that provides scholarships for both the School of Health Professions and School of Nursing. Applicants must be enrolled in a School of Health Professions undergraduate program and be a resident of the state of Alabama. Applicants should demonstrate academic excellence and financial need. This scholarship is awarded in the Fall.

The Lettie Pate Whitehead Foundation provides funding for scholarships focused on the foundation's founding mission—to provide financial assistance to women who express financial need in nine southeastern states. At the University of Alabama at Birmingham, Lettie Pate Whitehead Scholarships are awarded to women who, in addition to financial need, have an interest in pursuing studies in nursing or other health-related professions. Both undergraduate and graduate students within the Schools of Nursing and Health Professions are eligible. This scholarship is awarded each semester.

The Dr. Edward D. and Sandra Dunning Huechtler Endowed Memorial Award provides assistance to deserving students in need of financial support to continue in the pursuit of their goal of a career in the health professions. This award is open to undergraduate and graduate students enrolled in one of the School of Health Professions majors. Applicants should demonstrate academic excellence and financial need. This scholarship is awarded in the Spring Semester.

The School of Health Professions Junior Advisory Board Endowed Scholarship was established to provide financial awards assisting students with the completion of professional licensure and certification exams necessary to practice in their fields and/or the costs associated with professional development and job preparation. This scholarship is awarded in the Spring semester.

For more information: UAB School of Health Professions Student Awards and Scholarships. Application announcements are made by the Office of Academic and Faculty Affairs. Many programs in SHP also have scholarships available to currently enrolled students in those programs. Please refer to the program section of this handbook for more information.

SECTION 2 – SHP AND UAB POLICIES

SCHOOL OF HEALTH PROFESSIONS POLICIES

BACKGROUND CHECK AND DRUG SCREEN POLICY

With the exceptions noted below, students admitted to clinical and non-clinical programs in the School of Health Professions (SHP) will complete a routine criminal background check and drug screen using the approved vendor (CastleBranch). These screenings should be completed prior the first term of enrollment. Subsequent routine criminal background checks and drug screens using the approved school vendor will be completed prior to fieldwork placement (clinical, internship, practicum, residency, etc.).

Students enrolled in SHP undergraduate programs will complete a learning module in the campus learning management system by the first semester of enrollment. If a fieldwork placement (clinical, internship, practicum, residency, etc.) is required, students must complete criminal background checks and drug screens prior to the first day of the semester of a fieldwork placement.

- Fees for these screenings will be the responsibility of the student.
- The rules and regulations governing individual fieldwork placement sites may include additional provisions and/or more stringent guidelines which supersede this policy. Fees for these screenings are the responsibility of the student.
- Should your criminal background check contain issues, or you fail a drug screen that may prevent you from receiving or sitting for board certification/licensure, a representative from the Office of Academic and Faculty Affairs will contact you. Depending upon the outcome, students will have a registration hold placed on their account until in compliance and this may result in being dismissed from the program. See program's guidelines regarding specific consequences.

Programs requiring a criminal background check and drug screening by the end of the first semester of enrollment and again, prior to fieldwork placement (if applicable in the program requirements), are the following:

SECTION 3 – PROGRAM POLICIES

WELCOME TO THE DEPARTMENT OF NUTRITION SCIENCES

Welcome to the Master of Science in Nutrition Sciences program. The Department of Nutrition Sciences (DNS) at UAB has a rich history of nutrition education and research, with a heritage of nearly one hundred years of involvement in the field, beginning with three medical doctors, Drs. James McLester, Tom Spies, and Charles Butterworth. Their interest in the use of vitamins for the treatment and prevention of disease is responsible for the origin of UAB’s commitment to nutrition, which began in the 1920s. For a complete history of the DNS, visit the “History” page on our website.

The Nutrition Sciences program at UAB is recognized as one of the top programs in the United States and has had a profound national impact on the health care practices of Americans. The DNS is a leader in providing multi-professional nutrition support services, exceptional training programs for physicians and other health professionals, federally supported research endeavors, and nationwide public service activities. Everything you need to learn to save lives, prevent disease, and improve quality of life is at UAB.

While most larger nutrition programs in the United States are fragmented, the DNS is a multidisciplinary department that is highly integrated into UAB’s campus. This provides an ideal academic setting for excellence in nutrition education and training. The DNS has long-standing research programs in nutrient metabolism, cancer, obesity, and energy metabolism and regulation, which encompass both clinical and human nutrition as well as basic molecular nutrition. Local students have the opportunity to participate in basic, clinical, and translational research within our three National Institutes of Health (NIH)–funded research centers in the Department of Nutrition Sciences—the Nutrition Obesity Research Center, the Diabetes Research Center, and the Precision Nutrition Clinical Center —as well as other world-renowned research facilities on UAB’s campus, including the O’Neal Comprehensive Cancer Center. Local students also have the opportunity to study the clinical side of nutrition in the heart of Alabama’s top medical center, surrounded by UAB Hospital, Birmingham VA Medical Center, and Children’s of Alabama.

The program you are entering will prepare you for a rewarding career in the field of nutrition science. Through the Master of Science in Nutrition Sciences curriculum, you will develop a wealth of knowledge while advancing your skills in critical problem solving in a team environment.

FACULTY AND STAFF

The diversity inherent in the field of nutrition sciences is reflected in our faculty, staff, and students. To learn more about our Nutrition Sciences faculty and staff, please visit our webpage.

DEPARTMENT OF NUTRITION SCIENCES RESEARCH FACILITIES

SUSAN MOTT WEBB NUTRITION SCIENCES BUILDING

Constructed in 1983, the six-story Susan Mott Webb Nutrition Sciences Building provides dedicated laboratories, animal facilities, offices, and classrooms for our faculty and students. The Susan Mott Webb Nutrition Sciences Building is centrally located within UAB's main campus and is within easy walking distance of all major campus facilities.

The DNS benefits from the on-campus presence of and collaboration with outstanding regional and national institutes and centers, including the 2,000-bed University Hospital complex, which constitutes one of the major medical facilities in the eastern United States.

Research laboratories within the Webb Nutrition Sciences Building provide all of the major equipment needed for basic, animal, and clinical nutrition research in both human and animal samples. Notably, the Webb Nutrition Sciences Building operates one of the most complete Energy Metabolism/Body Composition Research Laboratories in the country. This laboratory contains indirect hood calorimeters, a facility for a dual energy x-ray absorptiometry (DEXA), bioelectrical impedance analysis (BIA) devices, exercise testing equipment, and a mass spectrometer equipped with a gas chromatograph for stable isotope analyses.

The DNS is unique in housing two prestigious NIH-funded centers— the Nutrition Obesity Research Center (NORC) and the Diabetes Research Center (DRC). These centers are directly involved in our student training and research experiences and provide accessibility to core facilities and educational opportunities.

CENTERS FOR RESEARCH AT UAB

UAB boasts many specialized research Centers of Excellence, including the Comprehensive Cardiovascular Center, Nathan Shock Center of Excellence in the Basic Biology of Aging, Sparkman Center for Global Health, Comprehensive Neurovascular and Stroke Center, Center for Healthcare Management and Leadership, UAB Center for Palliative and Supportive Care, Alzheimer's Disease Center, Center for Disability Health and Rehabilitation Science (CEDHARS), Hypertension Center, and many others. Most of these specialized centers are actively involved in training activities for students.

Students have ready access to most UAB resources, either directly or through their program director, academic advisor, or other faculty members. Certain centers on campus, such as the O'Neal Comprehensive Cancer Center, have a broad spectrum of diagnostic and analytical services available to UAB faculty.

The MS in Nutrition Sciences includes five tracks, each varying in their admissions requirements, curriculum, and program outcomes. For more information on each of the five tracks, please visit the MS in Nutrition Sciences webpage.

SUMMARY OF MS IN NUTRITION SCIENCES TRACKS

CLINICAL TRACK/DIETETIC INTERNSHIP (CT/DI)

The MS in Nutrition Sciences Clinical Track/Dietetic Internship (CT/DI) is a one-year combined dietetic internship and MS degree program that enables graduates to take the Commission on Dietetic Registration's registration examination for dietitians. In only 12 months, students are prepared for an exciting career in health care, wellness, and food systems operations. This track requires a minimum of 48 semester credit hours, including 14 semester hours of core courses and 34 semester hours that are unique to this track.

CLINICAL TRACK/DIETETIC INTERNSHIP/MASTER OF PUBLIC HEALTH (MPH) DUAL DEGREE PROGRAM

Students in the Dietetic Internship/MPH Dual Degree option must complete 30 semester hours of graduate-level coursework, comprising 26 hours of public health courses and 4 semester hours of NTR 589 to be applied to the MPH degree, in addition to the requirements of the MS in Nutrition Sciences CT/DI program described above. All required public health coursework is offered online. Only students who are enrolled in the MS in Nutrition Sciences CT/DI are eligible to apply for the dual degree option. Students must be admitted to both graduate programs (Nutrition Sciences and Public Health) for this dual degree.

CLINICAL TRACK/PRIOR LEARNING OPTION (CT/PLO)

Students eligible for the MS in Nutrition Sciences Clinical Track/Prior Learning Option (CT/PLO) program have completed an undergraduate degree in nutrition/dietetics and have received a verification statement from an Accreditation Council for Education in Nutrition and Dietetics (ACEND)-accredited Dietetic Internship (DI), Coordinated Program in Dietetics (CP), or Individualized Supervised Practice Pathway (ISPP) program. The CT/PLO requires a minimum of 30 semester credit hours, including 14 semester hours of core courses and 16 semester hours that are unique to this track. This is a non-thesis track, and all required coursework is offered entirely online.

DIETITIAN EDUCATION PROGRAM TRACK (DEP)

The MS in Nutrition Sciences Dietitian Education Program (DEP) track is one of the two Coordinated Program in Dietetics pathways that we offer (Coordinated Program as defined by the Accreditation Council for Education in Nutrition and Dietetics [ACEND] by the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics). Students in the DEP track must complete a minimum of 58 semester hours, including 14 semester hours of core courses and 44 semester hours that are unique to this pathway. Twenty-four of the semester hours unique to this pathway are practicums, or supervised practice experiences. All non-practicum courses are offered entirely online, and practicums can be completed in the Birmingham area or remotely, allowing students to complete their degree requirements in their local setting. Graduates of this program are eligible to sit for the Commission on Dietetic Registration's registration examination for dietitians.

LIFESTYLE MANAGEMENT AND DISEASE PREVENTION TRACK (LMDP)

The MS in Nutrition Sciences Lifestyle Management and Disease Prevention (LMDP) track offers an entirely online degree and is well suited for students who want to provide general nutrition information to the public for health promotion and disease prevention. Students in the LMDP track gain multi-professional perspectives at UAB, with classes taught by physician assistants, genetic counselors, registered dietitian nutritionists, and exercise physiologists. This track requires a minimum of 36 semester credit hours, including 14 semester hours of core courses and 22 semester hours that are unique to this track.

DIETITIAN EDUCATION GRADUATE CERTIFICATE PROGRAM (DEP-C)

The Dietitian Education Graduate Certificate Program (DEP-C) is the second of the two Coordinated Program in Dietetics pathways that we offer (Coordinated Program as defined by the Accreditation Council for Education in Nutrition and Dietetics [ACEND] by the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics). Students who successfully complete the LMDP track and the DEP-C earn an MS in Nutrition Sciences and are eligible to take the Commission on Dietetic Registration's registration examination for dietitians.

The DEP-C is restricted to students enrolled in the LMDP track. Students who apply and are accepted into the DEP-C complete an additional 37 semester hours (73 semester hours total) and earn a Graduate Certificate that accompanies their MS in Nutrition Sciences degree.

RESEARCH TRACK (RT)

The MS in Nutrition Sciences Research track (RT) requires a research thesis. Students must complete a minimum of 37 semester credit hours, including 14 semester hours of core courses and 23 semester hours unique to this track. Students in the RT are also required to complete and orally defend thesis research that contributes to the knowledge of nutrition sciences. This program uses blended learning, which incorporates both online and in-class courses.

MS IN NUTRITION SCIENCES – CLINICAL TRACK/PRIOR LEARNING OPTION

The UAB Graduate School designates the Clinical Track/Prior Learning Option (CT-PLO) as a Plan II program, which is the graduate school designation assigned to non-thesis programs. Whereas some Plan II programs require students to complete a comprehensive examination toward earning their degree, the PLO Track does not have this as a requirement.

The MS in Nutrition Sciences CT/PLO requires the completion of 30 semester hours of graduate work, comprising 14 semester hours of core courses and 16 semester hours of CT/PLO courses, in good academic standing.

The core curriculum requirements are required courses that provide the basic knowledge expected of all students in the MS in Nutrition Sciences program. The seminar course (NTR 690) is designed to broaden your knowledge within and outside of your interest areas and to provide the opportunity for you to practice critically evaluating scientific research. CT/PLO courses (NTR 500, NTR 601, NTR 604, NTR 611) are designed to enhance skills specific to registered dietitian nutritionists. All required coursework is offered entirely online.

Elective program options, including completion of a traineeship, research experience, or elective coursework, have in-person commitments.

The UAB GRADUATE CATALOG as well as the UAB POLICIES AND PROCEDURES guidelines are important resources for you throughout your program of study. Please familiarize yourself with these.

THE UAB GRADUATE CATALOG

The UAB Graduate Catalog outlines all the policies and procedures pertaining to academic performance, degree progress, academic and non-academic conduct, and student responsibilities. You are expected to be familiar with these policies and to abide by them. The Graduate Catalog can be found here.

In addition to the UAB Graduate Catalog, the DNS Student Handbooks outline MS in Nutrition Sciences–specific requirements. All degree-seeking students are expected to follow the MS in Nutrition Sciences requirements as well as those specific to their track. Therefore, the information within this handbook serves as a contract between you and this graduate program.

UAB POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

Please refer to the School of Health Professions and UAB policies included in Section 2 of this Student Handbook.

ACADEMIC ADVISOR

Shortly after a degree-seeking student in the DNS is accepted by the UAB Graduate School into a program of study, the DNS assigns the student an Academic Advisor. Dependent upon the MS in Nutrition Sciences track for which you are enrolled, your Academic Advisor may be your track Program Director or another advisor within the department. Your Academic Advisor is here to support you as you progress through your graduate studies and they want you to be successful in the MS in Nutrition Sciences degree program. Consider your Academic Advisor your ally, the one you can count on to support your success during your graduate studies.

It is expected that all students connect with their Academic Advisor every semester to update them on their academic progress and advancement toward degree completion. You and your Academic Advisor can work together to determine if these updates are best achieved through emails, phone calls, virtual meetings, or in-person meetings. You are expected to work with your Academic Advisor to establish and revise, when applicable, your academic plan of study, but ultimately it is up to you to take ownership and responsibility for your own course registration, academic progress, financial obligations of the program, and application for graduate degree.

BLAZERID

Your BlazerID is automatically assigned to you once you complete your graduate application. If you cannot find your BlazerID in the graduate school application portal, contact your Academic Advisor for assistance. You will need to create a unique password.

UAB EMAIL

Once you have your unique BlazerID and create your password, you will have access to all UAB's systems – including your UAB email address. All students are expected to communicate using their UAB email address for any UAB-related matter. Please follow UAB's Brand and Communication Toolkit when creating an email signature for your UAB email address.

COURSE REGISTRATION

You must register for all courses for which you wish to earn graduate credit. The UAB class schedule is accessible via BlazerNET located at www.uab.edu/blazernet. You are able to register for courses and adjust your schedule by adding and dropping courses through the end of the drop/add period, which can be found on the Academic Calendar.

Policies about tuition and fees, student account payment deadlines, payment processes, withdrawal from courses, leave of academic absence, withdrawal from the UAB Graduate School, and exceptions to policies can be found in the Graduate Catalog.

ACADEMIC PROGRESS

The UAB Graduate School requires that a Master of Science degree be conferred within five years of your start date, though your track may have requirements that are more stringent. Throughout the graduate program of study, your status in the program is critically evaluated in terms of your academic progress and productivity toward degree completion.

GRADUATION PLANNING SYSTEM (GPS)

You can review your degree progress online through the Graduation Planning System (GPS), which shows your satisfied requirements and those not yet satisfied for your degree. You will also find a selection of GPA calculators. You can learn more about how to access and read the GPS here.

GRADING AND GRADE POINT AVERAGE (GPA)

The grade of A indicates superior performance, B is adequate performance, and C is performance only minimally adequate for a graduate student. Any graduate student completing a course at the 500 level or above with a performance below the C level will receive a grade of F; the Graduate School does not use the grade of D. Whereas a grade of C is accepted in each course to receive a passing grade, a B average overall (3.0) is required to maintain good academic standing in the program.

Four (4.0) quality points are awarded for each semester hour in which an A is earned, three (3.0) for a B, and two (2.0) for a C. No quality points are awarded for a grade of F. Your GPA is determined by dividing the total quality points awarded by your semester hours attempted at the graduate level.

For courses designated as pass/not pass, a grade of P (passing) signifies satisfactory work. A grade of NP (not passing) indicates unsatisfactory work, although no penalty is assessed with respect to GPA.

The GPA Calculator can be used to explore how the classes you enroll in will affect your GPA each term.

ADDITIONAL ACADEMIC PROGRESS POLICIES

Policies about temporary grade notations, academic standing, repeated courses, grade replacement, grade changes, and time limitations can be found in the Graduate Catalog.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY CODE

The University established a new Academic Integrity Code effective August 23, 2021. This code, which applies to undergraduate, graduate, and professional students as well as all academic activities, defines academic misconduct and outlines procedures for breaches of the code. Policies are established for the resolution of charges of academic misconduct, and these processes are managed by the academic integrity coordinator (AIC). In the School of Health Professions, the AIC is the Associate Dean for Academic and Faculty Affairs. The full text of the Academic Integrity Code is available here.

DEPARTMENT GRIEVANCE POLICY

Although it is rare, issues can arise between a student and professor, preceptor, or Program Director. To ensure that concerns are addressed in an appropriate and timely manner, students should follow the program's procedure for resolving issues and document each stage of the process. The program is required to maintain a record of student complaints for a period of seven years, including the resolution of complaints. The following are the steps that must be taken for an academic grievance by a student:

1. Address concerns or problems with the responsible party, i.e., professor, preceptor, or Program Director. Students should make all attempts to communicate and resolve concerns with the responsible party prior to contacting the Program Director.
2. If no resolution is found, identify the problem, and clearly document the situation in writing. Present documentation to the Program Director, who will then arrange a combined meeting with all parties involved to work to resolve the issue.
3. If the grievance is with the Program Director, submit documentation to the Chair of the Department of Nutrition Sciences.
4. If at this point the issue is not resolved, documentation of the problem and grievance process will be submitted to the School of Health Professions Associate Dean for Academic and Faculty Affairs for review.
5. If these steps do not culminate in a resolution, the student should follow the University's Student Complaint Policy.

THE GRADUATE SCHOOL'S OFFICE OF INTERDISCIPLINARY GRADUATE AND PROFESSIONAL STUDIES (IGPS)

Through its Office of Interdisciplinary Graduate and Professional Studies, the Graduate School offers courses, workshops, and seminars designed to help graduate students develop career-enhancing skills. Current offerings include credit-bearing courses and workshops, as well as free seminars in writing, funding, presentations, and teaching at the college level. We encourage you to take advantage of these opportunities. More information and schedules are available on the Office of Interdisciplinary Graduate and Professional Studies website.

SUMMARY OF THE STEPS TO EARNING YOUR MS DEGREE

The following is an overview of the main steps required to earn the MS in Nutrition Sciences degree:

1. Maintenance of good academic standing (minimum 3.0 GPA)
2. Completion of 14 semester hours of core curriculum requirements as well as all track-specific curriculum requirements; when applicable, completion of elective courses as recommended by the Program Director
3. Submission of Application for Graduate Degree (visit this webpage for submission deadlines)
4. Conferring of degree

APPLICATION FOR DEGREE

Candidates for a degree must notify their Program Director and the UAB Graduate School of their intent to graduate by submitting the Application for Degree by the appropriate deadline. The application is accessible through BlazerNET by clicking Links/Forms and selecting Apply for Graduate Degree.

Upon receipt of the Application for Degree, both the MS in Nutrition Sciences program and the Graduate School will audit your requirements to ensure that you have met the degree requirements and are eligible to graduate with the earned degree. UAB's Graduation Planning System (GPS) contains a personalized degree audit, which includes all courses required to earn the degree, and will display completed, in-progress, and outstanding requirements. GPS is accessible through BlazerNET by clicking the GPS button in the menu on the right side of the page.

You must be registered for at least one (1) credit hour during your term of graduation. If you are covered by the student health insurance policy, hold an assistantship, or have student loans, it may be necessary to register for a prescribed minimum number of credit hours to retain these benefits. Make sure to check with the appropriate office(s) if retention of these benefits is a concern.

AWARD OF DEGREE

Upon approval by the Graduate School dean and payment of any outstanding financial obligations to the University, the president confers students' degrees by authority of the Board of Trustees. UAB does not determine the official degree type awarded, as this is governed by the Alabama Commission on Higher Education and the Board of Trustees after receiving a program proposal. Students' majors are reflected on their transcripts. For more information, please see the Graduate Catalog.
