

Sophia Cage

205-777-9998 • sophcage@uab.edu

PROFILE

---

- Internship experience in Alabama legislature and a political campaign
- Certified in Social Justice Leadership by the YWCA
- Internal Revenue Service Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) Certified

EDUCATION

---

The University of Alabama at Birmingham, Birmingham, AL
Bachelor of Arts in Political Science, Anticipated Spring 2020

- Political Science Honors Program
- Phi Sigma Alpha Political Science Honors Society

EXPERIENCE

---

Alabama Law Institute February 2019-Present
Legislative Intern Montgomery, AL

- Provide clerical support for legislative processes, including answering emails and phone calls, assembling research reports, and data entry
- Attend and transcribe committee hearings
- Develop an understanding of Alabama legislative processes and communicating with constituents

United Way of Central Alabama January 2018-April 2018
Tax Preparation Intern Birmingham, AL

- Prepared tax returns for low-to-moderate income families in the Birmingham community
- Completed training courses and exam to become IRS Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) certified

Randall Woodfin for Mayor June 2017-November 2017
Campaign Intern Birmingham, AL

- Campaigned for successful Birmingham Mayor candidate
- Assisted in the organizing of a phone bank effort that reached 10,000 Birmingham voters
- Provided data entry and clerical support

YWCA Central Alabama May 2017-June 2017
Social Justice Intern Birmingham, AL

- Served as volunteer staff for Anytown Alabama, a social justice summer program for Alabama high school students
- Facilitated social justice workshops and small group dialogues on gender, race, religion, immigration and more
- Earned YWCA's Social Justice Leadership Certificate
- Developed skills in public speaking, conflict resolution, leadership, team work, facilitation, and mediation

CAMPUS INVOLVEMENT

---

UAB Pre-Law Society August 2018-Present
Public Relations Director Birmingham, AL

- Organized Pre-Law Society's campus relations through social media presence